None of the prior art teaches a plant sensor and actuator simulator that includes a configurator having a computer and software for entering and maintaining one or more databases including validation requirements and associated test procedures, each test procedure comprising one or more tests, each test comprising at least one signal to be generated by the simulator and transmitted to the control system being tested, a plurality of I/O simulator modules detachably coupled to the configurator, communication channel connectors, and field I/O connectors, as shown in claim 10. None of the prior art teaches a method for training process operators that includes providing a plant comprising a human machine interface to a control system coupled to plant sensors and actuators and controlling a process,
